CORONA HOOK,
2016

CORONA HOOK is dimensioned for three different usage options. The back near the wall has room for a coat hanger, while the peg in the centre of the circle can be used for a strap – and in addition, you can drape your coat over the entire hook. This three-part flexibility makes Corona Hook suited for different types of use and makes the graphic coat hook an obvious choice in home interiors as well as in hotels or restaurants.

Corona Hook is milled in solid aluminium and subsequently anodised, which makes the material highly resilient to knocks and wear. Corona Hook is also available in a white powder-coated version with the same industrial expression and production qualities as the anodised version.
